Activity 4 — Role-Play Observer Checklist

The Walk-In Interruption — Retail Service Counter, Bugis

Focus of this observation	In-person service — acknowledgement, body language and park-and-return
You are observing	Role A — the Service Officer
Setup	Groups of 4. Role A = Service Officer, B = SIM customer, C = Ms Chen, D = observer/phone caller.
Duration	15 minutes

Observer: _____ Performer: _____ Round: 1 / 2

Tick DONE only where you actually saw the behaviour. 'What good looks like' is the standard — anything less is NOT YET.

#	What to observe	What good looks like	Done	Not yet
1	Acknowledged the walk-in within 5 seconds	Eye contact plus a raised hand or a short verbal hold — before finishing the current task.
2	Gave a realistic wait time	'About two minutes', not a vague 'in a moment'.
3	Protected the customer already at the counter	Stated the priority rule openly so the queue could hear it was fair.
4	Torso stayed oriented to the active customer	Turned only the head to the walk-in; never turned the whole body away.
5	Handled the phone without abandoning the person present	Let it queue or offered a callback — did not hold a full phone conversation with a customer standing there.
6	Nobody was asked to repeat themselves	Resumed the SIM registration and opened with Ms Chen's own words ('you mentioned a cracked screen').
7	Open, non-defensive gestures	Open palm rather than a pointed finger; no arms crossed; no glancing at a phone.
8	Closed each interaction with next steps	Both customers left knowing what happens now.

Strongest moment — what worked, and why

One thing to change in the next round

The performer's own view (ask them first, before you give feedback)

Check your work: You acknowledged the walk-in within 5 seconds, no customer was asked to repeat themselves, and the observer confirms you never fully turned away from the customer you were actively serving.
