Activity 5 — Role-Play Observer Checklist

The Angry Delivery Call — Logistics Hotline

Focus of this observation	Telephone service — listening, paraphrasing, hold technique and the close
You are observing	Role A — the Hotline Officer (seated back to back)
Setup	Pairs, seated back to back so there is no visual channel. A = Hotline Officer, B = Mr Faisal.
Duration	15 minutes

Observer: _____ Performer: _____ Round: 1 / 2

Tick DONE only where you actually saw the behaviour. 'What good looks like' is the standard — anything less is NOT YET.

#	What to observe	What good looks like	Done	Not yet
1	Full greeting within three rings	Company, own name, offer of help — and smiled before speaking.
2	Zero interruptions during the opening vent	Used only minimal acknowledgement sounds until the customer had finished. Count interruptions: target 0.
3	Captured the key fact from the vent	Heard and used the CPAP machine / father detail — the single most important fact in the call.
4	Acknowledged the experience without blaming	'You were given a delivery promise twice and it did not happen' — no defending the system, no blaming a colleague.
5	Paraphrased the whole issue and waited for confirmation	Included the father and the CPAP part, then checked 'have I got that right?'.
6	Hold had all FOUR parts	Asked permission · stated the reason · gave a realistic duration · thanked them on return.
7	Offered both options with a recommendation	Presented priority re-route AND guaranteed next-morning, recommended one with a reason, and let the customer choose.
8	Close named a specific time, an owner and a reference	No vague 'we'll look into it'. Committed to one proactive follow-up.

Strongest moment — what worked, and why

One thing to change in the next round

The performer's own view (ask them first, before you give feedback)

Check your work: You did not interrupt during the opening vent, your paraphrase included the father/CPAP detail, your hold had all four elements, and your close named a specific time and owner.
