Activity 9 — Role-Play Observer Checklist

Drawing the Line — Escalation and Abuse at a Service Counter

Focus of this observation	Escalation — the anger/abuse threshold, warnings, handover and documentation
You are observing	Role A — the Service Officer
Setup	Trios. A = Service Officer, B = Mr Teo (trainer may play this role), C = supervisor/observer.
Duration	15 minutes

Observer: _____ Performer: _____ Round: 1 / 2

Tick DONE only where you actually saw the behaviour. 'What good looks like' is the standard — anything less is NOT YET.

#	What to observe	What good looks like	Done	Not yet
1	Identified 4:00 as the escalation threshold	Recognised the racial slur as the crossing point — NOT the physical proximity at 7:00.
2	Warning one named the behaviour	Calm, specific and behavioural: 'I want to help you with this bill, but I cannot continue if you speak to me that way.' Never sarcastic or raised.
3	Warning two stated the consequence	'If that continues I will need to hand this to my supervisor and end our conversation.'
4	Stopped serving after the threshold	Did not keep trying to resolve the bill dispute after 4:00.
5	Protected personal information	Gave first name or staff ID only. Never the NRIC or personal details.
6	Clean handover to the supervisor	Briefly stated the issue, what was offered and the triggering behaviour — in front of the customer — then physically withdrew.
7	Correct five-second sequence at 7:00	Step back · hands visible and open · do not turn your back · clear verbal boundary · signal or press duress.
8	Incident report is complete and verbatim	Date, time, location, EXACT words used, witnesses, CCTV reference, actions taken, who was notified. Paraphrase destroys the evidence.

Strongest moment — what worked, and why

One thing to change in the next round

The performer's own view (ask them first, before you give feedback)

Check your work: You identified 4:00 as the escalation threshold, delivered two calm behavioural warnings, handed over without continuing to serve, and produced an incident report containing the verbatim wording and a CCTV reference.
